BACKGROUND

The sun was going down behind the Mountains and Thandraug was happy, it had been a very good day.

“More blood for the Blood God !” he thought to himself.

The slaughters committed in the name of his God were filling him with joy. Even his demoniac armour was delighted by the blood that had flooded today !

He knows that this day could have been his last, but he was the Chosen, the One that Khorne would not let down !

“Skulls for the Skull God !”, was his next thought, he knew that as long as he would please his God he would one of his favorites.

“Time to go now ! More slaughter awaits !” did he yelled to his followers, a band of Norse barbarians that would sacrifice their lives for him, or was it for Khorne ? The thought of treason was filling his mind...

What if Maeron, the toughest barbarian of the band would try to please Khorne more than he was himself ?

“Maeron, come over here”

As the Barbarian was approaching, Thandraug prepared his blade, and decapitated the unsuspecting barbarian.

Thandraug felt that Khorne was pleased... It had been a very good day !
